The National Press Club presents

Private Spies:

Is the privatization of intelligence harming national security — and the future of the CIA? And why are so many CIA officers quitting to go private?

A BREAKFAST PANEL with

General Michael Hayden Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, 2006-2009. Director of the National Security Agency, 1999-2005. Retired four-star U.S. Air Force general.

Michael Chertoff Secretary, Department of Homeland Security, 2005-2009. Co-author, USA PATRIOT Act. Founder and Managing Partner, the Chertoff Group, a security and risk management firm.

Jack Devine 32-year veteran of CIA covert operations, Acting Director and Associate Director of the CIA's Directorate of Operations. Founding partner and president, the Arkin Group, a firm specializing in international crisis management.

Moderated by New York Times bestselling author Joseph Finder. A Harvard-trained intelligence expert turned bestselling novelist, Finder is the author of eight novels including Paranoia, Killer Instinct, Power Play, and High Crimes (the basis of the Ashley Judd/Morgan Freeman film). His new book VANISHED will be published by St. Martin's Press on August 18 and is the first of a series featuring as its continuing hero a "private spy."

Thursday, August 20th at 8:00am

(continental breakfast will be provided)
